GOW Team Motivation Level (from my personal observation)

Making a game is an emotional journey for artists.

Concept Artist's Role on AAA Production

1. Communicate the Vision & Inspire the team

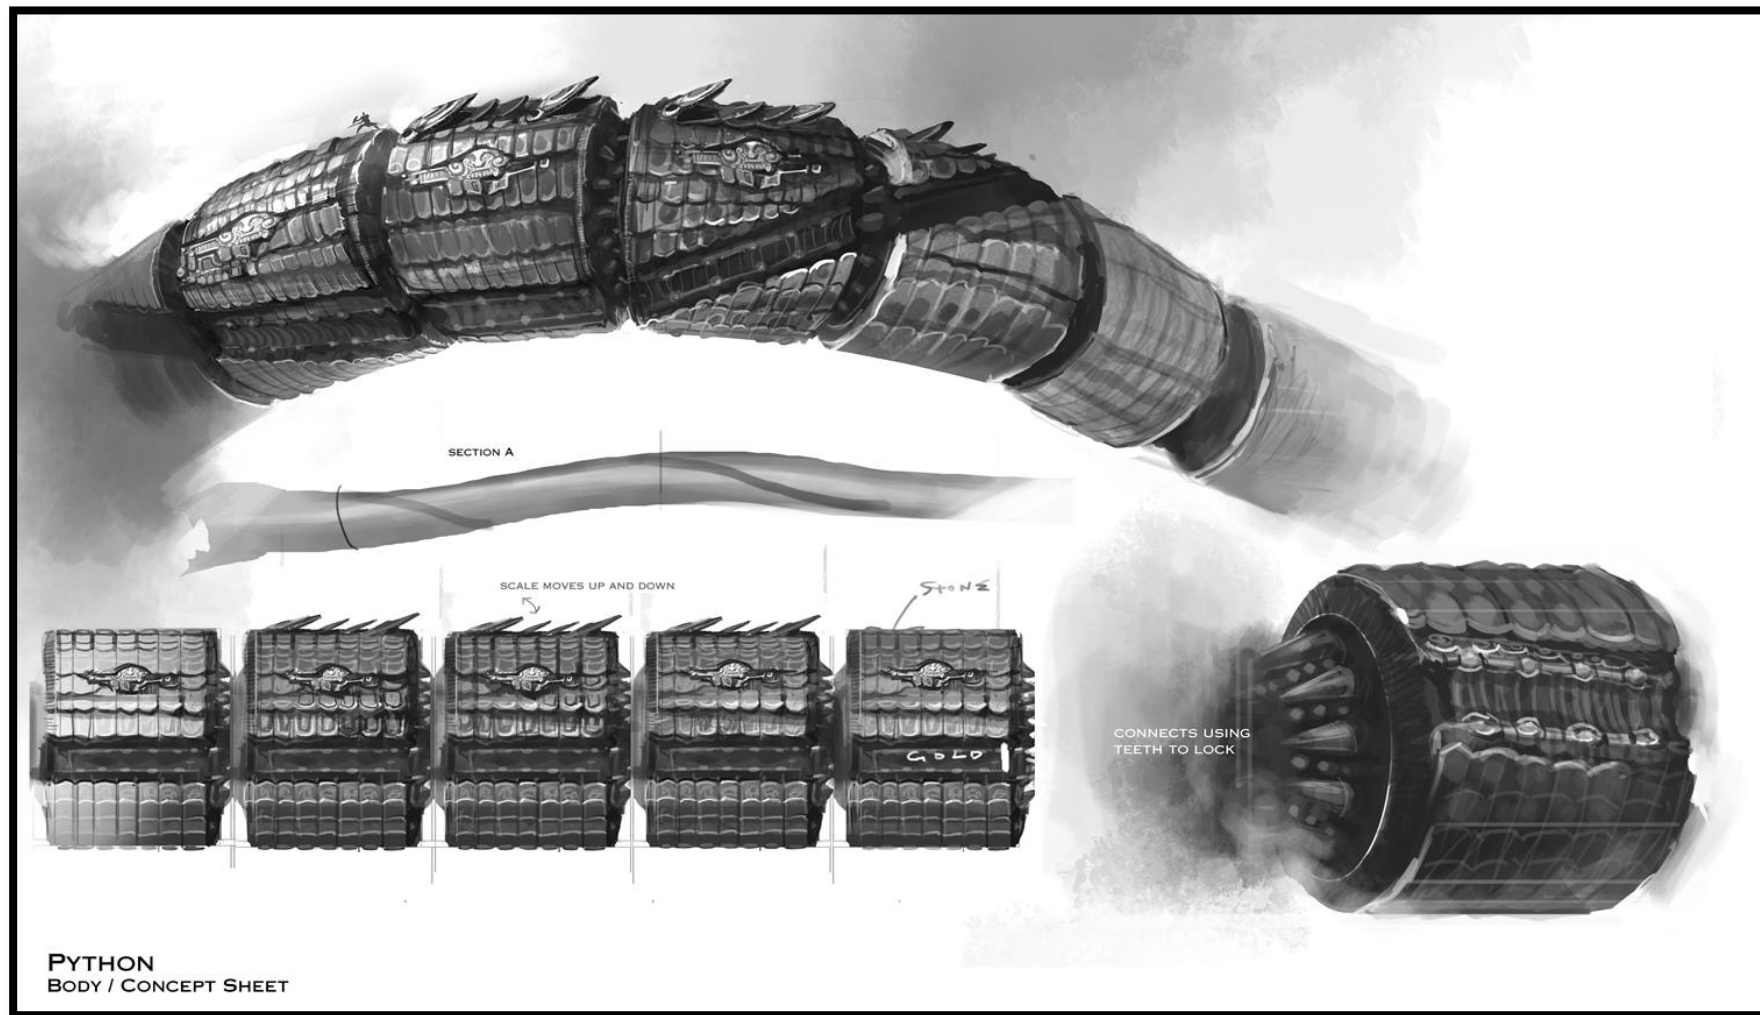

- Define Visual Identity
- Define World Tone & Mood
- Define Player Experience
- Inspire Team, Composer & Writer

Concept Artist's Role on Production

2. Provide Concepts for Production

- Support 3D Production Schedule
- Explain how things are put together
- Consistency and Efficiency
- Storyboard, UI, FX

Concept Artist's Role on Production

3. Engage the audience with artwork

After 11 years at Sony...

- Long Development Cycle got longer
- AAA Production stifled my creative flow
- Hit career ceiling (at least it seems like it)
- Mobile Platform & Indie Games – New Era

“Art is a celebration of life.”

We-Artists are complicated individuals.

Artists need to be around artists.

Game is an art form.

What is next step for me as an artist?

Starting own business means....PEOPLE

- Know who you are and know who you need.
- Partners & Mentors
- Focus on what you can do best first.
- Build bridges. Align yourself with right people.
- You need a solid foundation to scale the business.

SECTION

“A great team is better than a team of greats”

SECTION

Service Work

- Clients are our Inspiration
- Keep our lights on
- Strengthen our skills
- Able to learn from Client's Pipeline
- Become a multi-tasking Team

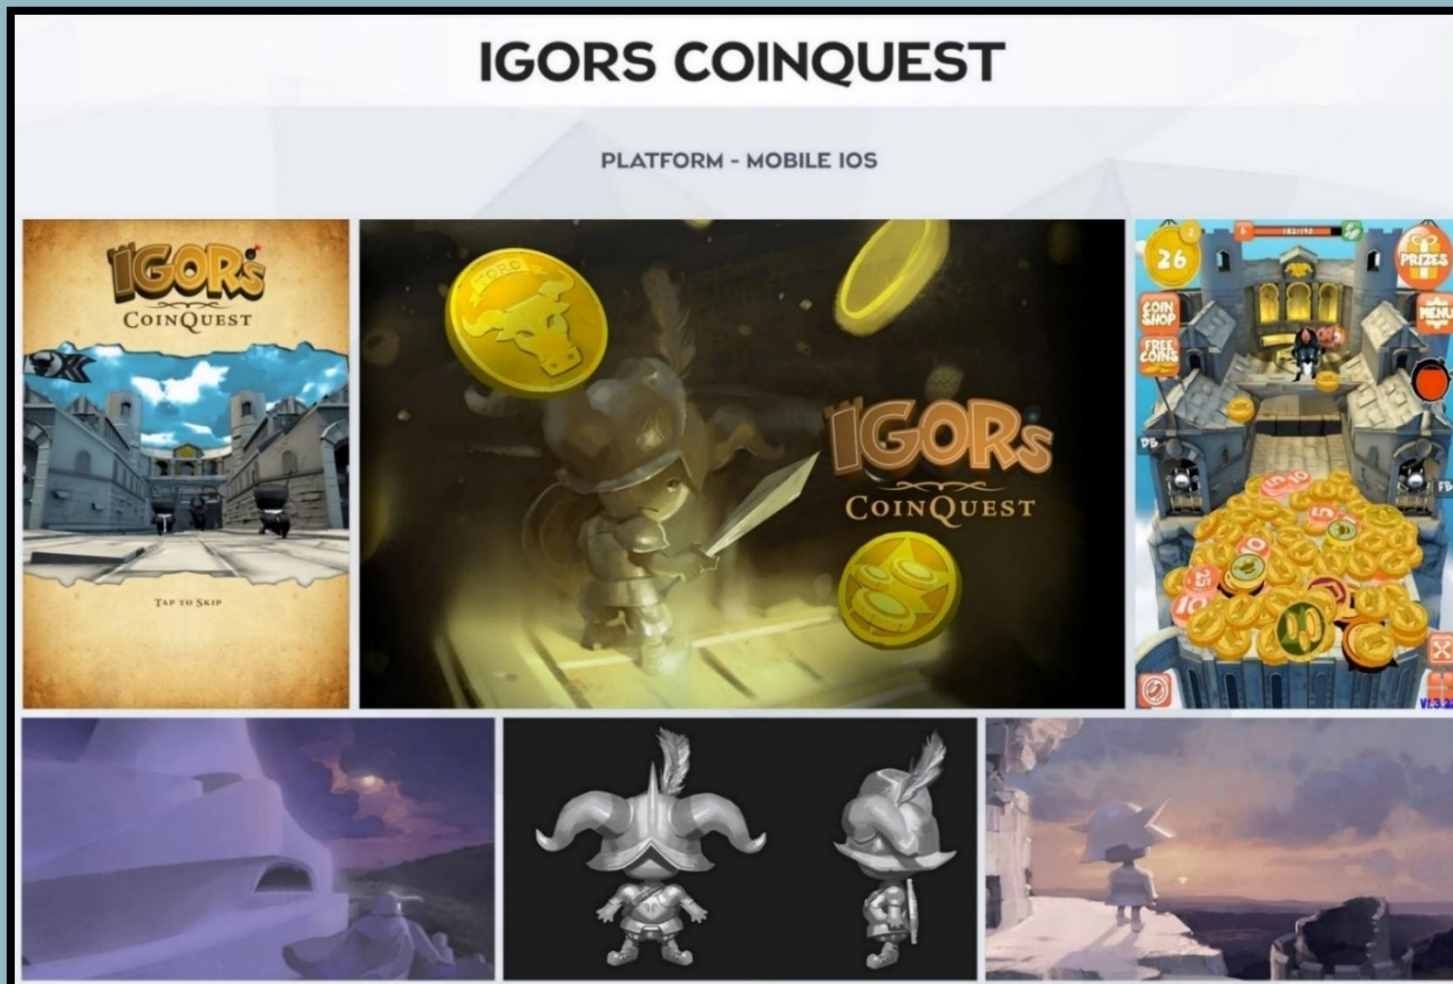

The Disney logo in its classic script font.The Riot Games logo, featuring the word "Riot" in a stylized, blocky font with a fist icon, and the word "GAMES" in a smaller, sans-serif font below it.The Gearbox Software logo, featuring a gear icon and the words "gearbox software" in a sans-serif font.The Infinity Ward logo, featuring a stylized atom icon and the words "infinity ward" in a script font.

HOW TO MANAGE A TEAM WHILE EVERYONE IS WORKING ON MULTIPLE PROJECTS.

1. Need good producers
2. Sync up with the team daily
3. Explain what each project means to the company
4. Prioritize projects but every projects are important
